

INTRODUCTION TO OUTDOOR LEADER SKILL TRAINING

“IOLS”

IOLS is the hands-on program that gives adult leaders the practical skills they need to lead scouts in the out-of-doors. The skills presented closely follow the Boy Scout handbook and will prepare you to work with Scouts from the Scout rank to First Class.

THIS IS REQUIRED TRAINING FOR ALL SCOUTMASTERS AND ASSISTANT SCOUTMASTERS.

WHERE: Black Creek Scout Reservation 850 Poor Robin Rd. Sylvania, GA 30467

WHEN: September 27-28, 2019—Check-in Friday at 5PM

COST: $25.00

NO WALK-INS ALLOWED, FOOD WILL BE FURNISHED. YOU WILL NEED TO MAKE SURE TO EAT BEFORE ARRIVING AT CAMP ON FRIDAY.

BRING: A TENT AND PERSONAL CAMPING EQUIPMENT FOR AN OVERNIGHT CAMPOUT
(SEE THE OVERNIGHT CAMPOUT SECTION OF THE BOY SCOUT HANDBOOK)

REGISTER ONLINE OR AT THE COUNCIL SERVICE CENTER NO LATER THAN SEPT. 24, 2019.

CoastalGeorgiaBSA.org/event/iols-training/2492943

LEARN THE SKILLS EVERY SCOUT SHOULD KNOW

PATROL OUTDOOR COOKING

Learning how to cook and handle food safely is part of every Scout's skill set. In this training you will learn how to teach these skills and more to your Scouts. You will also learn other new outdoor cooking techniques as well.

BASIC CAMPING SKILLS

Leave No Trace camping is more important now than ever. Do you know how to build a cook fire and Leave No Trace? How to set your tent up so you will not wake up in a puddle when it rains? What knot to tie, What leaf is this, Which way is North? These and other skills taught to a Scout will make outdoorsman out of them.

CAMPFIRE

Showmanship is part of Scouting that goes back to its founding. Learn the art of the campfire and the way to bring this back to your unit.