

RELEASE AND HOLD-HARMLESS AGREEMENT (ADULT)

(Creighton Island)

I wish to camp, fish and/or sightsee on Creighton Island, McIntosh County, Georgia, which is owned by the Williams and Gore families. I am requesting permission as a registered Scout Leader and/or Kayak Staff member; to go on and utilize Creighton Island for the purposes set forth above. I am aware of the inherent dangers of camping, fishing, and/or sightseeing. I am aware that this is an island that has no one living on it and has no maintained docks, roads or any facilities whatsoever. I agree to hold harmless and release the Williams and Gore families, who are the owners of the said island from any damage, harm or injury that may occur during my presence on said island. If I bring someone on said island I agree to indemnify and defend the Williams and Gore families for any possible action against them resulting from my or others presence on said island.

I understand that vehicles, watercraft and docks not owned by the owners of the island and/or other members of the Williams and Gore families may be used during this trip to the island. I agree to hold the owners of these vehicles, watercraft and docks harmless for any damages, personal injury or death incurred during their use.
